

Alliance of Community Assistance Ministries (ACAM)

Donor Privacy Policy

We will not sell, share or trade our donors' names or personal information with any other entity, nor send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations. We will not share or store your sensitive information. "Personal Information" is information that identifies you personally, such as your name, address, telephone number, and email address. We collect and store the personally identifiable information that you have provided us. This policy applies to all information received by ACAM, both online and offline, on any Platform ("Platform", includes the ACAM website and mobile applications), as well as any electronic, written, or oral communications. "Sensitive information" includes your Social Security number, your driver's license number and your credit card information. We will collect payment information, billing address and other information necessary to process a donation or event registration. To the extent any donations are processed through a third-party service provider, our donors' information will only be used for purposes necessary to process the donation. You have the right to review information that we have collected about you. To review that information please contact us in writing at bgorman@acamweb.org or Attn: Resource and Program Development Director, ACAM, 710 N. Post Oak Rd., Suite 210 Houston, TX 77024.